

Riddle matter

Dec. 275 - Father says he recovered judgment for Riddle in N. H. v. under Sen. Riddle, & under advice took his note for $25000. in settlement. & pays him made from time to time on this note to Father which he in turn had over to children & Mrs. Riddle - Father was guardian perhaps. Father has had continuing & what he has had up all he owns - Chas. Riddle Master then is a bad, due country interest - tall. Suit was brought v. Father & N. H. for some alleged breach of covenant in agreement entered into but this suit was withdrawn. all in hands of Tucker, at up there. Note of & given by Mary Riddle to Henry Ripley - renewed in 1849 - above note to H. R. was handed over to Nathan S. Batchelder, a cattle dealer in Manchester N. H. by H. R. & he brings suit on it - (Dec. 75) v. Mary Riddle - Harris & Tucker. Also for Ripley & they say that H. R. had for a long time to collect it of Mrs. Riddle - she says Father ought to pay (why?) - Harris & Tucker agreed - didn't - Father settles the Riddle est.

Riddle matten

mem. a.l.

12-80
#367